"God never gives someone a gift they are not capable of receiving. If He gives us the gift of Christmas, it is because we all have the ability to understand and receive it." - Pope Francis

Time, Treasure...

Yesterday I spoke with my seven-year-old granddaughter who is thrilled about Advent and the eventual lead-in to Christmas. When I asked her what I could give her for Christmas, she said, "I just want to spend time with you." I was so touched by this simple request of my time. I delved a little further and she added, "You know... reading, baking, or just walking."

As the Sisters of St. Francis prepare for the beginning of Advent and celebration of Christmas, we remember that St. Francis was the one that brought us the crèche to celebrate Christ's birth.

On a (not so recent) pilgrimage to a village in Greccio, Italy, a place like no other, there were many styles of crèches from around the world. They are generally artistic and simple, some with more detail, but they all had the same images of Jesus, Mary and Joseph with cultural interpretations. I could have spent so much more time there than was allotted; being there truly etched in my mind that Christmas is about remembering the simple beginning.

As we begin our individual Advent preparations, in the words of a seven-year-old, your time is precious and is appreciated by all that know you. Happy Advent and Merry Christmas as we all prepare and treasure our time with others.

Estate Planning with Paul Hood

The year-end issue

What's your most important estate planning advice?
What I say below may shock you, but I am resolute in my position:

What you do or don't do in your estate planning will affect the relationships of those who survive you. This is the most important advice I give everyone. Believe it or not, you wield significant power here, so be careful about its exercise.

You have an opportunity to plan so that your loved ones will still talk to one another after you're gone. Believe me, there's no quicker way to destroy a nuclear family than with a tone-deaf estate plan, or, worse yet, no estate plan. If you don't tend to your estate planning, you'll get the state's estate plan, which usually is not what you want.
